

Volunteer Agreement

Thank you for your interest in volunteering with the DC Shorts Film Festival (DCS.) DCS is a project of DC Shorts (DCS) a not-for-profit organization. Without your efforts, we would not be able to bring the festival to fruition. In appreciation of your time and talents you will receive complimentary admission to select festival events and screenings subject to availability, a party held in your honor upon completion of the festival, and a lasting invigorating experience of independent film.

Volunteer AGREEMENT AND NON-DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

I agree to volunteer for least 4 hours during the festival week, September 7-17, 2017. Times and job responsibilities will be randomly assigned. I understand and agree that all information about films, filmmakers, finalists is confidential and not to be released without the express approval of the DC Shorts Film Festival. I agree to keep confidential such information as DCS may from time to time impart regarding DCS business affairs/customers and denotes as confidential. I will not, in whole or in part, now or at any time, disclose such information. I am aware that during the course of my participation as a DCS volunteer, photographs and data may be obtained by DCS and used for promotional and/or archival purposes; and hereby waive any and all copyrights such as I may have other than for fair use purposes.

RELEASE

I, _____, understand in signing this agreement, DCS is not responsible for any injury or theft that may occur during the course of my volunteer services. I release DCS for any and all damages to persons/equipment/property I use during the course of my duties as a volunteer. By signing below, I am certifying that I am above the age of 18 and am legally able to enter into agreements and am doing so with the understanding that I will NOT be receiving any monetary funds in exchange for any services I provide.
